MEMO

To: All Acme Offices
From: The Chief
Re: Sandiego, Carmen
Villains International League of Evil

As you all know, Carmen Sandiego is the notorious ringleader of an international band of thieves which has caused a great deal of political turmoil throughout the world. Sandiego and her V.I.L.E. henchmen travel from one country to another, stealing priceless treasures. While we've been able to detain members of her previous noble, there isn't a prison around that she hasn't charmed, bought or busted her way out of.

Now we've reached the final hour. Carmen and her gang have stolen the latest model time machine from a super-secret laboratory miles beneath the Nevada desert, and they're out to change the world. Not content with pillaging the present, they are using this technology to loot the most priceless treasures of the past 1500 years: Napoleon's hat, Don Quixote's lance, even Paul Revere's horse.

The potential significance of this travesty lies far beyond our imaginations. By altering the past, Carmen will disrupt history's delicate chain of events and annihilate the present as we know it, the future as it is to be. Everything we've achieved—our comfort, our families, our country and the countries of the world, our commitment to law and order, all of civilization—is up for grabs. Thus, our very existence is at stake! You must save us, and with us our destiny, by setting history right.

Your mission: to bring back Carmen Sandiego and the stolen time machine alive and intact. You will be issued the latest development in portable time travel devices: the Chronoskimmer 325i. You will use it to travel through 1500 years of time and 48 locations. The 325i features an electronic sensor which enables you to scan the crime scene for clues and translate conversations with witnesses and informants. It also features a Capture Robot to apprehend the suspect with minimal personal danger.

Acme has been granted a Federal Time Travel Commission license allowing us to use the Chronoskimmer with certain time limit and conduct restrictions. The attached information will assist you in successfully completing your mission.

Best of luck from all of us here at Headquarters. The whole world is counting on you.

CHRONOSKIMMER USER'S MANUAL

- Checking all of the buttons will cost you more time; it's up to you as a detective to decide which is more important.
- You'll need all of the character clues you can get to obtain a warrant, so be sure to log them in the EVIDENCE DATABASE! (See the next section)
- To leave the SEARCH mode press the Control Pad left or right so the cursor rests on a Chronoskimmer front panel button; or select EXIT.

- To compute evidence and to issue a warrant, press the Control Pad to COMPUTE, then press A, B, X or Y.

This checks your notes in the database against all of the gang's dossiers. If the computer finds a single match a warrant is issued and the Capture Robot is activated.

If more than one gang member's dossier matches the clues you've entered, you are given a list of possible suspects: you'll need to collect more clues to have a warrant issued.

☛ TIP: You'll need to log at least three character clues before a warrant will be issued.

NOTE: Only one warrant can be active at any time. If you modify or add to the Evidence Database and then choose Compute, any existing warrant may be voided even if no new warrant is issued.

- To leave the Evidence Database, press the Control Pad left or right.

- If you don't want to save your current rank, select QUIT GAME.
- To begin another case, select GET NEW CASE.
- If you've selected ABORT by mistake, you can cancel your selection by selecting EXIT or by moving the Control Pad left or right.

Tips From an Old Gumshoe

- Remember to work quickly. Keep track of the time left on the Chronoskimmer control panel. The Federal Time Travel Commission has never granted an extension on authorized hours for solving a crime, so don't waste time traveling to a destination unless you're certain it's the one to which the suspect has fled.
- You'll know you're on the right track when you see a suspicious person or occurrence on the location panel. The suspect uses other V.I.L.E. gang members to check you out when you're closing in. If you interrogate a witness and he or she knows nothing, you're probably in the wrong location.
- Beware of sneak attacks—they mean you're closing in on your suspect's hideout! Make sure that you've got a warrant before you close in, or else the crook will get away. And remember you can return to the previous location to gather more clues or obtain a warrant.
- Every detective has his or her excuses for blowing a case—I've heard 'em all! But the excuse I hear most often is a bad memory. I tell all of my cadets to keep notes on paper as they gather clues.
- Keep in mind that if you have checked with an informant or witness and have proceeded to another screen, you can go back to that information with no further time penalty.

- Not all of the clues are contained in The New American Desk Encyclopedia®. You will find additional location clues in the destination descriptions that appear in the communication window on your Chronoskimmer.
- Keep track of everything; you never know what might be important. And don't get discouraged. Even an Ace Detective can't solve every case. The more you track, the better you'll get! But remember that as you rise through the ranks the cases become more difficult.

Deciphering Clues

- The key to your success in tracking down Carmen and her gang is to decipher the clues accurately and efficiently. Remember that you may be able to decipher clues with information from both the on-screen descriptions at each location and The New American Desk Encyclopedia.
- You'll find it easier to locate the information you need for your investigation if you become familiar with The New American Desk Encyclopedia. Take a moment to look at the section "How to Use" at the beginning of the Encyclopedia. When you look up an item, you may want to note additional items cross-referenced in the entry (those items in small capital letters).

FROM THE DESK OF THE CHIEF

- Although solutions to all clues can be found by using the on-screen descriptions or The New American Desk Encyclopedia, you may also want to use other reference books to help in your investigation.

Deciphering A Sample Clue

- Here's how I teach my detectives to solve a clue:
If your investigations don't lead you to any immediate conclusions, consider checking possible destinations by looking at the destination panel.
- For example, let's say you use the Scanner button, and the clue is: "You find a telescope." This doesn't bring a specific destination immediately to mind. To narrow down the possibilities you check the location panel and find four locations/times: India 1700-1899, Spain 1900-1959, Japan 400-1299, and Italy 1300-1699.
- With these possible destinations in mind, look up "telescope". Reading through the entry, you find cross-references to "astronomy" and "Galileo", but nothing that helps narrow down the search. Looking up "astronomy", you find several location references: Babylonia, China and Egypt, all prior to 2000 B.C., too early for your use. Other references include Greece (not in the destination panel list) and a second cross-reference to "Galileo". Time to look him up!

- The entry for Galileo shows that he was an Italian who lived from 1564 to 1642, and that he was the first to use the telescope for astronomical observations. Both his location and time match one of the destinations found on the destination panel. Time for a trip to Italy!
- If some clues seem harder to solve than this, you can widen your investigation by either doing a second or third scan of the area, or by questioning your witnesses. For example, doing a second scan in this case would turn up the clue: "'Galileo Galilei' is scratched on the side of the telescope," and a third scan would get you: "The telescope was manufactured in 1609." Remember, however, that you have a deadline and that investigating takes up valuable time.
- So use your best judgment, manage your time wisely, and you'll be well on your way to apprehending the most feared crook in the world—
Carmen Sandiego.
